

Tourism

Topic Paper No 18 – Summary

The planning system should encourage sustainable tourism to bring considerable benefits for the local economy, inward investment, providing jobs and playing a key role in rural development and urban regeneration.

The tourist attractions of Flintshire are ideal for short breaks, a stop off en-route, or a day out. They include the Clwydian Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the traditional seaside resort of Talacre Beach, the Greenfield Valley Heritage Park and Wepre Cefn. The Flintshire Hyffle GF nee GFle Vaty, f Ct

- the development of Flintshire's n of In of t q protection and enhancement of these natural and historic resources. This is particularly important future changes in the provision of facilities and have regard to objectives for urban regeneration and rural diversification.

- contain clear policies for the provision and enhancement of tourism facilities.
- set out policies to avoid or resolve conflict between different pursuits.

