The Soundness of the LDD ifficulty registering to comment by Dave Mackie April 2021

This submission has arisen because the mean registration process within the LDP Consultation was changed in the last feedays. Some consultees any have encountered difficulties arlier in the process and not submitted comments.

At the start of the LDP on sultation I expressed my concerns out this via the LDP phone help line but my concerns were dismissed the end of the consultation period I had to contact the help line again and I repeated my concerns was called backend other way for making comments were explained to me, but I was told thesechanges should have been made when I

A number of Hawarden@munity Councillors recognised the same issues and the Community Council submitted a formal complaint to the County Council, which was rejected.
