

MYNYDD ISA - SETTLEMENT SERVICE AUDIT

Settlement Commentary

Mynydd Isa is a large village, embracing Bryn-Y-Baal, which lies between Mold and Buckley. The built form of the village is relatively easily defined, although it does physically adjoin Buckley along Mold Road resulting in coalescence.

Mynydd Isa benefits from regular bus services and convenient access to employment opportunities, services and facilities within these two nearby towns. It is well served educationally with two primary schools and a secondary school. Other amenities include a pub, various shops and the local village centre which houses the library, a pharmacy.
